

3 Song Lyrics By Kate Mullkin

Bowetry

We were heroes once,
We young Americans
Facing the strange changes
Of modern love
Rebels with torn dresses
Under dance floor pressures
In our red shoes
Swaying to Ziggy's guitar
In our own fashion
Searching for diamonds like dogs
And the skies, for Major Tom

Now planet earth is blue
And there's nothing
We can do

Getting Home Is Getting Harder Every Day

Woke up on the floor
Crawled up to the door
Pushed myself into the light
I could not retrace
My steps unto this place
No familiar face in sight

*I need to find my own direction
I got no cards in hand to play
I'll take the path of introspection
Getting home is getting harder every day
Getting home is getting harder every day*

Tried to take a bus
Got my numbers crossed

Found myself lost on the tracks
Strangers point the way
Soul in disarray
I've gone too far now to get back

*I need to find my own direction
I got no cards in hand to play
I'll choose the path of introspection
Getting home is getting harder every day
Getting home is getting harder every day*

They say that home is where the heart is
I just can't locate mine right now
It seems to me the toughest part is Knowing where to look and learning how

*I need to find my own direction
I've got no cards left now to play
I need to find my lost connection.
Getting home is getting harder every day.*

Wound up on a train
Whirring through the rain
People chatter this and that
Remember what we had
Times when we were glad
Your bedside rose is my hat

What I'll Find

Today's my day to take the time
And smell the blossoms on the vine
Sip the sun as I wake up
And taste the tea that's in my cup
Disconnect the world-wide web
And focus on my world instead
Leave my nightmares in my bed
And welcome dreams inside my head

When I give my thoughts
Some good intention
And take today
One moment at a time --
I wonder what I'll find...

Won't worry over come what may
I'll go out and enjoy the day
I'll do my job and do it right
No need to fuss, no need to fight
Put down my phone and read the light
That's glowing from the moon at night
Troll through my town and greet the beat
From all the buskers in the street

When I give my thoughts
Some good intention
And take today one moment at a time --
I wonder what I'll find...

I'll cross my bridges as I come to them
Stop in the middle for the view
Take all my wishes and I'll toss them in
Not expecting that they all are coming true

I'll make a pact with my own self
To try and help somebody else
Spread some cheer, share a smile
Release my ego for a while
Let go of fear let go of hate
Latch on to something to create
Use all the gifts I've got for good
And be the person that I should

When I give my thoughts
Some good intention
And take today one moment at a time --
When I'm not in awe, I'm not paying attention
When I stop wasting all my time

I wonder what I'll find
